Jeremy Didier, PCAC, PCC, is a Parent Coach & Outreach Coordinator for ImpactADHD. She's also the founder and group director of ADHDKC, Kansas City's award-winning CHADD chapter. She was recognized as CHADD's Volunteer Leader of the Year in 2013, & ADHDKC was recognized as CHADD's Chapter of the Year in 2014. Didier is an author, a Professional Certified ADHD Coach, a graduate of the ADD Coach Academy, JST's Coaching Kids, and of the inaugural class of the Chris Zeigler Dendy Executive Function Training Camp. She is also a court-appointed special advocate (CASA) who provides a stable presence in the lives of at-risk kids, and a Mentor 2 Excel volunteer, working with adults returning to their communities following incarceration. She is honored to be a military wife, an adult with ADHD, and mom of five fabulous kids.

Please call Michael McGuire at 913-780-7018 should there be a need for interpretation services.

A committee of school staff and community partners have identified the most common dilemmas students and parents face. This speaker and support series aims to educate the Olathe Public School community, share connections to resources/agencies, and provide a forum for parents to create a network of support.
